How to use this guide

This book can be read individually or used by one person to teach a family or group. A useful rhythm is: Part One while planning; Part Two before or during travel; Part Three shortly before entering ihram; Part Four before visiting each historical site; and the starred du'as in Part Five for gradual memorisation. The ritual chapters are written in “do this next” order so a first-time pilgrim can keep the book open without hunting for steps.

Source standard: every religious claim in this edition is tied to the Qur'an, Sahih al-Bukhari, Sahih Muslim, or a report in another hadith collection explicitly graded sahih. Merely-hasan reports, Companion-only supplications, devotional symbolism and location legends are excluded. Practical travel notes are labelled as practical, not revelation.

“And complete the Hajj and ‘Umrah for Allah.”

Qur'an 2:196

This is a general guide, not a fixed itinerary. Pilgrims may visit Madinah before or after Makkah, travel by air, road or rail, and stay for different lengths of time. Follow the miqat that applies to the route actually taken, leave generous time for worship and rest, and confirm current permits, transport rules and access arrangements close to travel.

What Umrah Is

Meaning, definition and the ruling

The authenticated Umrah sequence is: enter ihram for Umrah before crossing the applicable miqat, perform seven circuits of tawaf, pray two rak'ah behind Maqam Ibrahim where feasible, perform seven lengths between Safa and Marwa, then shave or shorten the hair. This order is recorded in Sahih al-Bukhari 1524 and Sahih al-Bukhari 1623, 1624; see also Sahih Muslim 1218.

Allah commands, “Complete the Hajj and Umrah for Allah” (Qur'an 2:196). This source-restricted edition does not present the four schools' labels or compensation rules as though those classifications were themselves verses or hadith. A personal case involving omission or invalidation should be referred to a qualified scholar.

“Indeed, Safa and Marwa are among the symbols of Allah.”

Qur'an 2:158

The Prophetic sequence

THE AUTHENTICATED UMRAH SEQUENCE

The source table below links each step to the Qur'an or authentic Sunnah.

Step	Linked source	What the source directly establishes
Enter ihram	Sahih al-Bukhari 1524	Use the applicable miqat for the route crossed while intending Umrah.
Tawaf	Sahih al-Bukhari 1623, 1624	Seven circuits, then two rak'ah behind Maqam Ibrahim.
Sa'i	Sahih Muslim 1218	Begin at Safa, make dhikr and du'a, and finish at Marwa.
Hair rite	Sahih al-Bukhari 1727 ; Sahih Muslim 1303	Men shave or shorten; shaving has the greater stated virtue.

Step	Linked source	What the source directly establishes
Women	Sunan Abi Dawud 1984 (sahih li-ghayrihi)	Women shorten; shaving is not laid upon them.
Omissions	Source boundary	Do not invent a compensation. Ask a qualified scholar for the exact case.

The table below identifies what the Qur'an and authentic Sunnah directly establish. It intentionally avoids turning later juristic terminology into quoted revelation. Follow the complete sequence carefully and ask a qualified scholar if an act has been omitted.

Source-grounded conditions and a practical duration

Intention is foundational (Sahih al-Bukhari 1). The miqat rule is established in Sahih al-Bukhari 1524. Seven circuits of tawaf, two rak'ah, and seven lengths of sa'i are recorded in Sahih al-Bukhari 1623, 1624. Tawaf must remain outside the Hijr because it is part of the Kaaba's original foundations (Sahih al-Bukhari 1584). A menstruating woman waits until she is pure before tawaf (Sahih al-Bukhari 305). Questions such as the effect of ordinary loss of wudu require juristic analysis and are not stated here as a direct hadith ruling.

Practical note — do not plan Umrah as a race. Crowd levels, prayer breaks, health and access routes can change the duration greatly. Reserve a generous block of time and do not attach religious merit to speed.

Why We Perform Umrah

Ibrahim, Hajar and Isma'il: the story beneath the rites

Sahih al-Bukhari 3364 records Ibrahim leaving Hajar and Isma'il near the House, Hajar's seven searches between Safa and Marwa, and the emergence of Zamzam. The hadith itself says that her movement is the origin of people's walking between Safa and Marwa. This is the authenticated narrative; added dramatic details are unnecessary.

The same hadith records Jurhum settling near the water and Ibrahim later raising the House with Isma'il. The Qur'an preserves their prayer: "Our Lord, accept from us; surely You are the All-Hearing, the All-Knowing" (Qur'an 2:127).

"And proclaim to the people the pilgrimage; they will come to you on foot and on every lean camel; they will come from every distant pass."

Qur'an 22:27

The Qur'an records the proclamation of pilgrimage (Qur'an 22:27), while the wording of the talbiyah is preserved in Sahih al-Bukhari 1549 and Sahih Muslim 1184. This edition does not add the unsourced claim that every talbiyah is a literal reply to Ibrahim's proclamation.

Virtues established in authentic texts

"From one 'Umrah to the next is an expiation for what is between them."

Sahih al-Bukhari 1773; Sahih Muslim 1349

The established virtue is clear: from one Umrah to the next is an expiation for what lies between them (Sahih al-Bukhari 1773; Sahih Muslim 1349). The rites are acts of obedience, remembrance and supplication. This edition removes the popular but unrevealed claims that ihram "is a shroud," tawaf "joins the orbit of creation," or hair cutting symbolically "sheds the old self."

Hajar's authenticated story shows reliance on Allah together with effort (Sahih al-Bukhari 3364). Beyond that, personal reflections may be useful if clearly kept personal; they must not be presented as the revealed meaning of a rite.

The Prophet's ﷺ four Umrahs

Anas reported that the Prophet ﷺ performed four Umrahs: the intended Umrah of Hudaibiyah, the compensatory Umrah the following year, the Umrah from al-Ji'ranah after Hunayn, and the Umrah joined to his Hajj. The report notes that all but the one with Hajj were in Dhu al-Qa'dah. This gives Hudaibiyah and Ji'ranah a direct connection to the Prophetic history of Umrah — but visiting those sites is historical reflection, not an additional rite.

The Prophet ﷺ performed four Umrahs: Hudaibiyah, the following year, al-Ji'ranah, and one with his Hajj.

Sahih al-Bukhari 1780 (also 4148)

The three mosques and multiplied prayer

Special journeys of worship are undertaken to al-Masjid al-Haram, the Prophet's Mosque and al-Masjid al-Aqsa (Sahih al-Bukhari 1189; Sahih Muslim 1397). One prayer in the Prophet's Mosque is better than one thousand prayers elsewhere except al-Masjid al-Haram (Sahih al-Bukhari 1190; Sahih Muslim 1394). The previous unsafely presented one-hundred-thousand figure has been removed from this strict edition.

“Do not undertake a journey except to three mosques: this Sacred Mosque, my Mosque, and al-Masjid al-Aqsa.”

Sahih al-Bukhari 1189; Sahih Muslim 1397

How Umrah Is Performed

Preparing heart, body and bag

Practical preparation — renew the intention for Allah (Sahih al-Bukhari 1), repent, return people's rights, and arrange debts responsibly. A private du'a list is an organisational aid, not a prescribed Sunnah list.

Practical preparation — bathe, manage medication, hydrate, rest and test footwear before travel. The Prophet was perfumed before entering ihram (Sahih al-Bukhari 1539). Men use the two ihram cloths; women enter the same state in ordinary modest clothing, while the specific prohibition of niqab and gloves is in Sahih al-Bukhari 1838.

Bag item	Why it matters
Passport / visa / tickets / hotel details	Keep digital and offline copies. One friend should hold the shared itinerary.
Unscented soap / wipes	Avoid fragrance after entering ihram.
Ihram belt + spare lower cloth (men)	Security and an easy change if soiled.
Comfortable sandals	Feet swell; test them before travel.
Water + light snack	Crowds and transfers stretch longer than expected.
Medication + simple first aid	Carry prescriptions in original packaging where possible.
Small drawstring shoe bag	Useful at mosques; do not block entrances with footwear.
This guide + pen	Mark du'as, names and rulings before you need them.

The five miqats

The Prophet fixed Dhul Hulaifah, al-Juhfah, Qarn al-Manazil and Yalamlam for their approach routes, and for anyone else crossing them while intending Hajj or Umrah (Sahih al-Bukhari 1524; Sahih Muslim 1181). Dhat 'Irq for the Iraq route is reported in Sahih Muslim 1183 and in Sunan Abi Dawud 1739, graded sahih. Modern route planning should use the actual line crossed, not nationality or an approximate distance on a decorative map.

The miqats are for their people “and for anyone who comes through them from elsewhere intending Hajj or ‘Umrah.”

Sahih al-Bukhari 1524; Sahih Muslim 1181

Entering ihram — state, not clothing

Ihram is a legal-sacred state entered by intention for the rite, not merely the act of putting on white cloth. A man may put on the two cloths at the hotel and still not yet be in ihram; once he makes the intention for Umrah and begins talbiyah at the miqat, the restrictions apply. Women enter the same sacred state without changing into a prescribed colour or style.

Step	What the pilgrim does before crossing the miqat
1. Prepare	Bathe and prepare practically. Perfume may be applied to the body before entering ihram (Sahih al-Bukhari 1539).
2. Dress	Men use the ihram cloths. Women use ordinary modest dress; no niqab or gloves (Sahih al-Bukhari 1838).

Step	What the pilgrim does before crossing the miqat
3. Pray	Pray an obligatory prayer if due. This edition does not declare an independent two-rak'ah ihram prayer.
4. Enter the rite	Enter ihram for Umrah before the miqat is crossed (Sahih al-Bukhari 1524 ; Sahih al-Bukhari 1694, 1695).
5. Talbiyah	Recite the authenticated talbiyah (Sahih al-Bukhari 1549 ; Sahih Muslim 1184).
6. Remain in ihram	Continue until tawaf, sa'i and the hair rite are completed (Sahih al-Bukhari 1791, 1792).

Ihram rules: forbidden and allowed

IHRAM RULES — SOURCE-BOUND QUICK GRID
FOR ALL	MEN	WOMEN
• No sexual relations or quarrelling • Do not remove hair • Do not hunt land game • Do not marry or propose • No perfume after entering ihram	• No shirts • No turbans / head covering • No trousers • No hooded cloaks • No leather socks except the stated need	• No niqab • No gloves • Ordinary modest dress remains • The hadith does not prescribe white clothing
AUTHENTICALLY SHOWN AS PERMITTED Washing the head and body while in ihram; applying perfume to the body before entering ihram.

Use the hadith's exact categories. Men in ihram do not wear shirts, turbans, trousers, hooded cloaks or leather socks except in the stated need, and garments are not scented (Sahih al-Bukhari 1542). Women in ihram do not wear niqab or gloves (Sahih al-Bukhari 1838). Washing the head and body is permitted (Sahih al-Bukhari 1840; Sahih Muslim 1205). The former “stitched clothing” explanation and claims about lowering fabric over the face have been removed because they required juristic detail beyond the stated source standard.

Tawaf, step by step

Enter al-Masjid al-Haram calmly. No fixed first-sight du'a is identified in the source corpus used here. During the Umrah tawaf, men perform raml in the first three circuits where safe (Sahih al-Bukhari 1602, 1605). The diagram has been corrected so its arrows truly run anticlockwise: from the Black Stone the movement proceeds up the eastern side, keeping the Kaaba on the left.

At the line	Action established or safely described
Black Stone	Point toward it and say takbir when it cannot be reached safely (Sahih al-Bukhari 1613).
Circuit 1–7	Complete seven circuits (Sahih al-Bukhari 1623, 1624). Keep the Kaaba on the left and remain outside the Hijr (Sahih al-Bukhari 1584).
Yamani Corner	Do not turn touching a corner into pushing or harm. No unsourced gesture is assigned here.
Yamani to Black Stone	Qur'an 2:201 is an excellent supplication generally. The location-specific report formerly used here was merely hasan and is not presented as Sahih Sunnah.
Other stretches	Use Qur'an, remembrance and lawful personal du'a; no fixed circuit-by-circuit formulas are claimed.
After circuit 7	Pray two rak'ah behind Maqam Ibrahim where feasible (Qur'an 2:125 ; Sahih al-Bukhari 1623, 1624).

'Umar kissed the Black Stone and said: "I know that you are a stone; you can neither harm nor benefit. Had I not seen the Messenger of Allah ﷺ kiss you, I would not have kissed you."

Sahih al-Bukhari 1597

This statement protects tawhid and etiquette at once. The Stone is honoured because the Prophet ﷺ honoured it — not because it independently grants wishes. A Sunnah is never pursued by shoving, shouting, touching non-mahrams or injuring another pilgrim.

Maqam Ibrahim and Zamzam

After seven circuits, pray two rak'ah behind Maqam Ibrahim where feasible (Qur'an 2:125; Sahih al-Bukhari 1623, 1624). In the detailed pilgrimage report, the Prophet recited al-Kafirun and al-Ikhlās and drank Zamzam (Sahih Muslim 1218). The former “Zamzam is for whatever it is drunk for” report was removed because this edition excludes merely-hasan evidence.

Sa'i: Safa to Marwa, seven lengths

Approach Safa and recite Qur'an 2:158, then begin with what Allah began with. Face the qiblah, declare Allah's oneness, praise Him and make du'a, repeating the dhikr and du'a three times; do the same at Marwa (Sahih Muslim 1218).

Count seven lengths: Safa to Marwa is 1 and Marwa to Safa is 2, finishing at Marwa. Sahih Muslim 1218 records the Prophet running in the valley and walking after the ascent. The corrected diagram now carries the valley band across all seven lengths; it no longer suggests that running belongs only to lap 3.

Halq / taqṣir and release from ihram

After sa'i, men shave or shorten; shaving received the repeated supplication of the Prophet before shortening was included (Sahih al-Bukhari 1727; Sahih Muslim 1303). Women shorten rather than shave (Sunan Abi Dawud 1984, graded sahih li-ghayrihi). The earlier unsourced “fingertip-length” measurement has been removed.

Special rulings: women, elderly pilgrims and proxy Umrah

Menstruation does not prevent ihram. The Prophet told Aishah to do what pilgrims do except tawaf until she became pure (Sahih al-Bukhari 305). For a time-critical or medically unusual case, consult a qualified scholar rather than converting a school-specific exception into a general instruction.

“Do what the pilgrims do, except do not perform tawaf around the House until you are pure.”

Sahih al-Bukhari 305; see also 1650

Practical accessibility note — wheelchair users follow the same sequence. The Prophetic rites are not changed into a new ritual because of the mobility aid. Route levels, distances and assistance procedures are modern operational matters and should be confirmed locally.

Proxy Umrah is not given a general rule in this edition. The earlier paragraph relied on juristic extensions and Sunan reports with differing applications. A case involving a deceased or permanently unable person should be decided with a qualified scholar before entering ihram.

Mistakes and fixes

Problem	Source-bound response
Crossed the miqat while intending Umrah	Enter ihram immediately and ask a qualified scholar. The miqat command is in Sahih al-Bukhari 1524 ; no compensation is invented here.
Lost the count	Pause, use what is certain, and seek help if needed. No specific compensation is claimed from the source corpus used here.
Wudu broke during tawaf	The effect of ordinary loss of wudu is a juristic issue. Sahih al-Bukhari 305 directly addresses menstruation, not every form of impurity; ask a scholar for the case.
Forgot an ihram restriction	Stop the action when remembered and ask about any consequence; do not assume blanket exemption.
Used perfume / removed hair	Qur'an 2:196 addresses hair and fidyah in its stated context; Sahih al-Bukhari 1542 prohibits scented garments. Obtain case-specific guidance.
Sexual relations	Qur'an 2:197 prohibits sexual relations in the pilgrimage state. The former blanket invalidation ruling has been removed as juristic analysis.
Cut hair before completing sa'i	The authenticated sequence places release after tawaf and sa'i (Sahih al-Bukhari 1791, 1792). Stop and ask a scholar.
Crowd prevents touching	Point and say takbir; the Prophet did so while riding (Sahih al-Bukhari 1613).

Pilgrim etiquette: Qur'an 2:197 as a travel rule

“Whoever undertakes Hajj therein: let there be no sexual relations, no disobedience, and no arguing during Hajj.”

Qur'an 2:197

Qur'an 2:197 forbids sexual relations, disobedience and arguing in the pilgrimage state. Apply that instruction directly: guard the tongue, reduce conflict, give way and do not harm others while pursuing optional acts.

The Places: History, and Why We Visit

MADINAH AL-MUNAWWARAH

Madinah al-Munawwarah

Masjid an-Nabawi

Sahih al-Bukhari 3906 records the Prophet's arrival, the camel kneeling at the site, the yard of two orphan boys and the building of his mosque. Between his house and pulpit is a garden from the gardens of Paradise (Sahih al-Bukhari 1196; Sahih Muslim 1391). One prayer there is better than a thousand elsewhere except al-Masjid al-Haram (Sahih al-Bukhari 1190; Sahih Muslim 1394). Send salat and salam upon the Prophet as Allah commands (Qur'an 33:56), without directing supplication to anyone besides Allah.

Why we visit — to pray in the Prophet's Mosque and send salat and salam upon him. No separate reward is assigned here to a photograph, doorway or unsourced grave-side formula.

Masjid Quba

The Prophet stayed at Quba on arrival and established its mosque (Sahih al-Bukhari 3906). He later visited Masjid Quba, walking or riding, and prayed there (Sahih al-Bukhari 1193; Sahih Muslim 1399).

Why we visit — to follow the authenticated practice of visiting and praying there.

Jannat al-Baqi

The Prophet went to al-Baqi and supplicated for its inhabitants; Sahih Muslim 974 preserves the cemetery greeting and prayer for forgiveness. This edition does not identify unmarked graves or add devotional acts at them.

Why we visit — to give the authenticated cemetery salam and pray for the Muslim dead (Sahih Muslim 974).

Masjid al-Qiblatain

The change of qiblah is established in Qur'an 2:144 and Sahih al-Bukhari 4492. A sahih report describes worshippers at Quba turning during prayer when the news reached them (Sahih al-Bukhari 403). It does not establish the modern Masjid al-Qiblatain building as the exact location of that turn.

Why we visit — no special visit or prayer at the present building is claimed from the Qur'an or authentic Sunnah; the lesson is obedience to the revealed change of qiblah.

Uhud and the Archers' Hill

At Uhud the Prophet stationed fifty archers and ordered them not to leave even if victory appeared; many left and the battle changed (Sahih al-Bukhari 3039). Qur'an 3:121–175 addresses Uhud's lessons. The Prophet also said of Mount Uhud, "It loves us and we love it" (Sahih al-Bukhari 2889).

Why we visit — to reflect on the Qur'anic and sahih accounts, not to invent a ritual on the hill.

The Trench and the "Seven Mosques"

Surah al-Ahzab records the coalition and fear of the Trench (Qur'an 33:9–27). Sahih al-Bukhari 4106 records the Prophet carrying earth while the trench was dug. This strict edition does not repeat an unsourced attribution of the military proposal or assign worship to the later "Seven Mosques."

Why we visit — to understand the Qur'anic setting of al-Ahzab. No seven-stop prayer circuit is established.

Masjid al-Ghamamah — source caution

No Qur'an verse or sahih hadith cited in this edition establishes a special devotional visit to the present Masjid al-Ghamamah building or the popular cloud story attached to its name.

Why we visit — if seen, treat it as an ordinary historical landmark, not as a Sunnah rite or a place with a stated special reward.

Wadi al-Aqiq

The Prophet described al-Aqiq as a blessed valley and was instructed to pray there while combining Umrah with Hajj (Sahih al-Bukhari 1534). The earlier well narrative was removed because it was not supported within this edition's strict source corpus.

Why we visit — to recognise a valley named in an authentic report, without assigning a new ritual to a modern stopping point.

Museums and markets — practical, not devotional

Museums and markets are ordinary educational or commercial stops. This edition assigns them no religious virtue and includes no health or reward claim that is not established in the Qur'an or authentic Sunnah.

Why we visit — only for lawful education or shopping after protecting prayer and the Umrah rites.

Dhul Hulaifah (Abyar Ali)

Dhul Hulaifah is the miqat fixed for the Madinah route (Sahih al-Bukhari 1524; Sahih Muslim 1181). The Prophet entered ihram there (Sahih al-Bukhari 1541). Facilities may change; the revealed concern is not to cross the applicable miqat while intending Umrah without entering ihram.

Why we visit — it is used when the actual journey to Makkah crosses this miqat.

Makkah al-Mukarramah

Al-Masjid al-Haram and the Kaaba

Ibrahim and Isma'il raised the foundations of the House while praying for acceptance (Qur'an 2:127). At the conquest of Makkah, the Prophet removed idols around the Kaaba while reciting that truth had come and falsehood vanished (Qur'an 17:81; Sahih al-Bukhari 4287). The earlier Black Stone arbitration story was removed because it was not established within this edition's source corpus.

Why we visit — to perform the rites Allah legislated, pray, recite Qur'an and recover the central truth of the sanctuary: worship belongs to Allah alone.

Jabal al-Nur and Cave Hira

Sahih al-Bukhari 3 records the Prophet's seclusion in Hira, the first revelation and Khadijah's reassurance. Qur'an 96:1-5 preserves the opening revealed words. No prayer or climb at the cave is prescribed as part of Umrah.

Why we visit — to study an event established in Sahih al-Bukhari 3; viewing or climbing the mountain is not a rite.

Jabal Thawr

Qur'an 9:40 records the Prophet and Abu Bakr in the cave during the Hijrah. Sahih al-Bukhari 3653 preserves Abu Bakr's fear of being seen and the Prophet's reassurance. Spider-web and pigeon details are excluded.

Why we visit — to reflect on the Qur'anic and sahih account; climbing is not worship.

Mina, Muzdalifah and Arafat

These are Hajj locations, not Umrah rites. The detailed Farewell Pilgrimage description in Sahih Muslim 1218 establishes the order of Arafat, Muzdalifah and Mina. Visiting them outside Hajj does not reproduce Hajj or create an Umrah act.

Why we visit — only for education from the authenticated Hajj account, not to perform symbolic substitutes.

Makkah cemeteries

The general Sunnah at a Muslim cemetery is salam and supplication for the dead (Sahih Muslim 974). This edition removes claims about the exact grave of Khadijah at al-Mualla because that identification is not established in the Qur'an or a sahih hadith cited here.

Why we visit — only to give the authenticated cemetery salam and pray for the dead, without touching graves or seeking aid from their occupants.

Masjid al-Jinn — source caution

The Qur'an records jinn listening to revelation (Qur'an 46:29-32; Qur'an 72:1-2). It does not identify the present mosque building as the authenticated place of that event or prescribe a visit there.

Why we visit — no special visit is claimed; study the Qur'anic account without attaching it to an unverified spot.

The traditional birthplace area — source caution

No Qur'an verse or sahih hadith cited in this edition authenticates the present building as a devotional birthplace site. Therefore the former location narrative has been removed.

Why we visit — no special visit or act of worship is prescribed in this source-restricted guide.

Hudaybiyah

The Prophet and his Companions approached Makkah intending Umrah and were stopped at Hudaybiyah. Sahih al-Bukhari 1694, 1695 records their ihram for Umrah, and Surah al-Fath names the outcome a clear victory (Qur'an 48:1). His four Umrahs include Hudaybiyah and the following year's Umrah (Sahih al-Bukhari 1780).

Why we visit — to connect the location with the authenticated Umrah and Surah al-Fath, not to add a rite.

Al-Ji'ranah

The Prophet's four Umrahs included one from al-Ji'ranah after Hunayn (Sahih al-Bukhari 1780). The hadith establishes the historical connection; it does not require ordinary pilgrims to visit the modern mosque there.

Why we visit — for authenticated history only, not because Umrah requires the site.

Tan'im / Masjid 'Aishah

Aishah performed an Umrah from Tan'im after Hajj on the Prophet's instruction (Sahih al-Bukhari 1651; Sahih al-Bukhari 1783). The report establishes her case and that she went outside the sanctuary; it does not by itself declare repeated Umrahs in one trip superior.

Why we visit — to understand Aishah's authenticated case. A person planning repeated or proxy Umrahs should not manufacture a general rule from one circumstance.

Jeddah: ordinary travel, not pilgrimage

No religious site is established here

This source-restricted edition does not identify Al-Balad, the Corniche or an alleged grave of Hawwa as religious destinations. They are ordinary travel choices and must not be assigned worship, reward or sacred history without evidence.

Why we visit — only for ordinary lawful travel or leisure when time permits; never as part of Umrah.

The former “Eve's grave” legend has been removed. No Qur'an verse or sahih hadith in this guide establishes such a grave in Jeddah.

Planning a flexible Umrah journey

Operational note: Rawdah permits, Haramain train schedules, flight times, road access and local entry arrangements can change. Use the planning flow above as a flexible framework, then confirm current details in official apps, tickets and government guidance close to travel.
